AYNOR

HIGH

Foreword

Within the pages of this book we have sought to portray school life as it exists at our Alma Mater, to capture that indefinable force which through the years has prompted her sons and daughters to worthy ideals and high achievements. We hope that it may serve as a reminder in coming years of those scenes which we can never relive, those friends we can never forget.

Alma Mater

On the coast of Carolina
Stands the school we love the best,
Blue the banner waving o'er her
Emblem of her fearlessness.
High green pines are all around her,
English ivy climbs her walls;
Hallowed are the many memories
Of years spent within her halls.

To Aynor High, our Alma Mater
Pledge we now our loyalty,
True are her daughters, strong her sons,
Crowning her with victory,
Her guiding hand, her praise, her name.
We'll sing above the rest
We shall to all the world proclaim
The Glory of our A. H. S.

Our Choice

To our parents, in love and appreciation we dedicate this issue of the Revue. Their love and guidance have brightened our days and lightened our struggles as we strived for an education.

We shall always remember their efforts toward making our ideals high and our skills adequate for meeting the problems of the future.

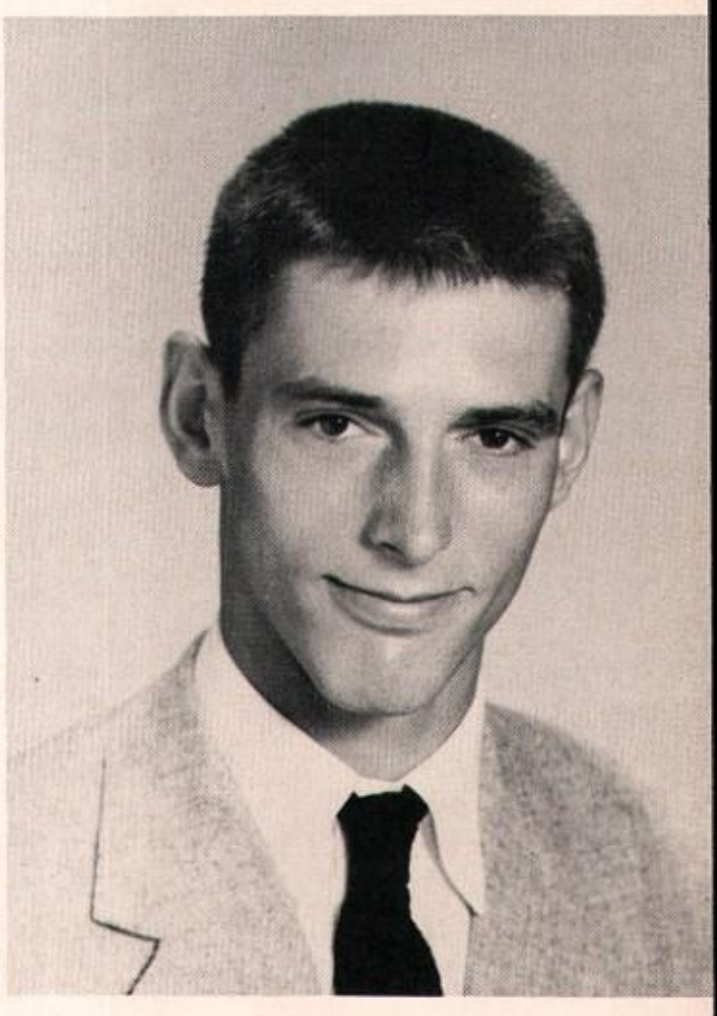
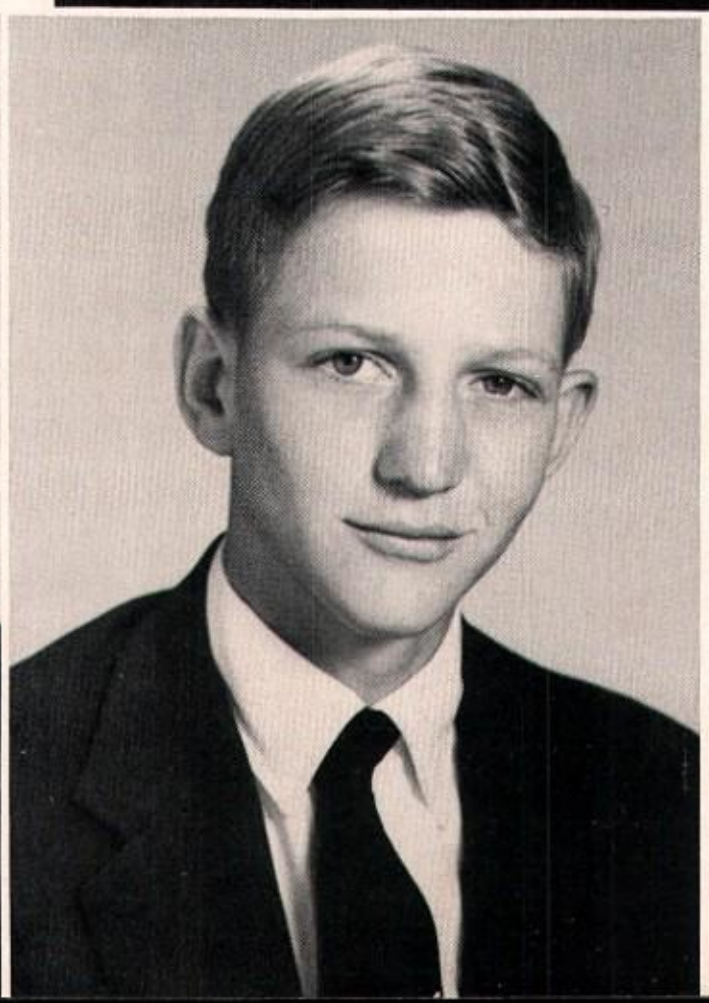
JIMMY STRICKLAND

"Silence never betrays you."





ADDIE MAE VAUGHT

"Be a lady in your long walk of life."

JAMES COY VAUGHT

"Wittiest of wit, but a better fellow's hard to find."

Class History

It would be quite impossible to put on paper the experiences that have meant the most to us. These are inscribed in the hearts and minds of us, the seniors. This history is a brief, lasting record to keep these things clear in our minds through the coming years.

With mingled emotions, our eyes toward the future, we, the new subfreshmen, began our struggle through high school in 1951. Our guiding lights during the first year of our quest for education were Mr. Miller, Miss Lynch, Mr. Hall, and Mr. Hucks. To climax this year for us, we elected Arba Carmichael and Lorese Hucks as our May Day attendants.

After a brief summer rest, we started back to school. We took our places in the different clubs and organizations, and elected our class officers and settled down to work. Ree Graham was elected Treasurer of the Student Council and Sapphira Richardson and Jerry Gene Allen represented us in the Student Council. Later on in the year, Arba Carmichael and Anna Brooks were elected May Day attendants.

We began our sophomore year by electing class officers, Patricia Smith serving as president. Our representatives in the Student Council were Charles Floyd and Mary Alice Singleton, and Norma Lundy was elected secretary. We chose Patricia Smith and Anna Brooks as our May Day attendants. The best was saved for the last, because for some of us being tapped into the National Honor Society was the best. Lora James, Sara Ellen Page, Charles Floyd, Mary Ann Doyle, Bernice McCrackin, Lorese Hucks, and Norma Lundy were the new members.

Under the leadership of our president, Charles Floyd, we began our junior year. Our homeroom teachers were Mrs. Hucks, Mrs. Counts, and Mr. Altman. We elected to the May Court Marjorie Richardson and Patricia Smith. Our play, Tomboy, turned out to be a big success. The cast included Charles Floyd, Lora James, Marjorie Richardson, Peggy Page, Jerry Gene Allen, James Coy Vaught, Ralph Andrews, Charles Davis, Norma Lundy, Addie Mae Vaught, Sara Ellen Page, Bessie Nobles, Mary Ann Doyle, and Shelby Jean Floyd. New members elected to the National Honor Society were Marjorie Richardson, Cathryn Peavy, Phillip Graham, and Peggy Page.

In our final year, we are but two classes with Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Stoudemire as our teachers and our class president, Ernest Baxley. The big election for this year was May King and Queen. Marjorie Richardson was elected Queen and her King was Ernest Baxley. Escort and Maid of Honor were Ralph Andrews and Mary Ann Doyle. Norma Lundy and Cathryn Peavy were chosen May Day attendants. This past fall, our boys made a fine showing in football. The members of the team from our class; Jerry Allen, Mark Johnson, Charles Floyd, Ernest Baxley, Ralph Andrews, Dan Page, Basil Dudley, Walter Capps, and Billy Gunter; along with the rest of the team, won the District Twelve Class "A" Championship and played for lower state but lost. So far Basketball season has not gone far enough to determine state championship, but the season up to now has turned out well. With Lora James as Captain, Mary Ann Doyle as Co-Captain, Sara Ellen Page, and Cathryn Peavy from our class on the team, we're reaching for the top. Honors bestowed upon students were Miss Hi Miss, which went to Sara Ellen Page and Miss D.A.R., which went to Lorese Hucks.

When things seem to go wrong, and the odds seem against us in the remainder of our journey through life, it would be well worthwhile to bear these words in mind:

"Life's contest doesn't always go
To the stronger or faster man;
But sooner or later the man who wins
Is the man who thinks he can."

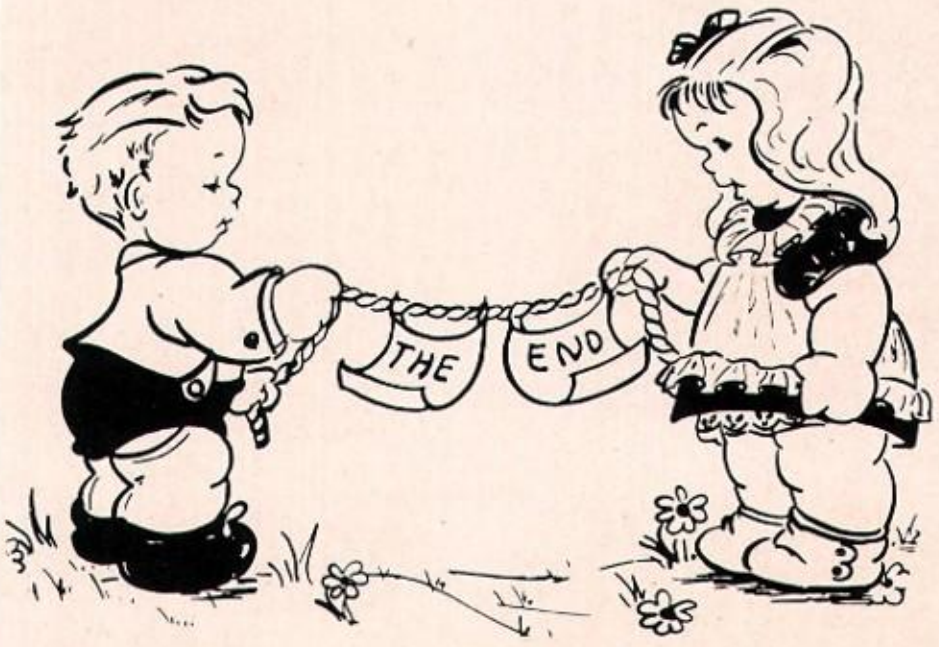
Best wishes to a sweet kid. Della Jane



Wright, I have enjoyed going to school with you. And a lot of love on Dec. 2 and a sweet kiss and a nice and sweet hug

Love Ellen Joyce

Wright,
I certainly have enjoyed coming to school with you this year. May the best of everything be yours in the near future.

Della Ann

Wright,
you are a very nice boy. I have enjoyed your company this year. Best wishes and lots of luck to you in the years to come.

Judith!

But wishes and lots of luck to a very nice boy.
Joyce Teague

Wright,
you are a very nice
boy. I have enjoyed knowing you through out these years.
Judith!
